2027 Legislative Issues Conference

NEW LEADERS, NEW FACES ... LET'S KEEP BUILDING

Whether it's a new face or a returning leader, the stakes for public education will be high in 2027. The bonds we build today, will carry throughout the year. Come hear from the new faces and the new Leaders. The decisions made at the Capitol should be made with your input. The annual Legislative Issues Conference is great place to start sharing stories and strengthening relationships.

NEW LEADERS, NEW FACES ... LET'S KEEP BUILDING

SUNDAY, JANUARY 24 - AGENDA

5:30 PM	Registration
6:00 PM	Reception and Dinner
7:00 PM	Program: Keisha Patent Legislative Fiscal Analyst for the Nebraska Legislature

Budget Choices and Budget Impacts - Hear the honest story of Nebraska's fiscal picture and the hard budget choices to be made. K-12 education represents a large portion of the State's budget and will have to be part of the broader budget discussion. Keisha will share the State's fiscal picture, the options of the Legislature, and the impact to K-12 education. Changes to TEEOSA, Foundation Aid, and Special Education funding will all be part of the discussion. It's a tough year and she will shoot us straight on the fiscal road ahead.

MONDAY, JANUARY 25 - AGENDA

Weeks into each year's Legislative Session, key committee chairs, senators, and education leaders are invited to share their respective views throughout the morning. Get a firsthand look at the bills which will have an impact on public education in Nebraska. Close the conference by networking over lunch as a majority of Senators join us to discuss key takeaways from the morning.
